

Call for Applications: Interim Chief Executive Officer

Minnesota Consortium for Community Developers (MCCD) is an association of nonprofit community development organizations committed to expanding the wealth and resources of neighborhoods through housing and economic development initiatives. For close to thirty years, MCCD members have worked together to increase opportunities for the development of quality, community-based projects through collaborative action on public policy issues, loan fund development, public education efforts, and long-term strategic planning. Through these efforts, the organization has demonstrated the effectiveness and efficiencies gained by a shared vision of cooperation.

For years, MCCD has built coalitions that turn local expertise into statewide change and delivered capital where it's needed most, paired with practical support.

Mission: MCCD works collectively to expand economic prosperity by investing in and stewarding community development resources.

The Opportunity

MCCD is seeking an Interim Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to provide strategic leadership and organizational stability during a time of transition. The Interim CEO will work closely with the Board of Directors and senior leadership team to maintain momentum toward our mission while preparing the organization for long-term leadership continuity.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide effective day-to-day leadership and operational oversight of the organization.
- Ensure financial stability and sound management of resources.
- Support the staff team, fostering a culture of collaboration, accountability, and continuous improvement.
- Manage consultants and contractors.
- Maintain strong relationships with partners, funders, and stakeholders.
- Guide the organization through the transition period, preparing for the appointment of a permanent CEO.
- Advise the Board of Directors on strategic priorities and organizational development needs.

Qualifications:

- Proven executive leadership experience, ideally in nonprofit, member organizations or the CDFI sector.
- Strong background in organizational management, member services, and strategic planning.

- Demonstrated ability to lead during periods of change with integrity, decisiveness, and empathy.
- Excellent communication, stakeholder engagement, and team-building skills.
- Commitment to the mission and values of the MN Consortium of Community Developers.

Terms of Appointment:

- Position type: Interim, full-time, exempt contractual.
- Reporting to: Board of Directors.
- Location: Minneapolis, MN.
- Start date: As soon as possible.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates are invited to submit a cover letter and résumé outlining their qualifications and salary requirements to the MCCD Board Chair, Gunnar Carlson at gunnar.carlson@riverton.org. Please include "Interim CEO Application – MCCD" in the subject line.

The MN Consortium of Community Developers is an equal opportunity employer and encourages applications from individuals of all backgrounds who share our values.
